

New Years 2007 in Rio de Janeiro

List of package rates – hotels & flats

How to request your booking:

Please choose a hotel from the list, and send your email to travel@ipanema.com. Make sure to confirm the kind of room you need, the period of your stay, and the number of guests. We will get back to you shortly and confirm availability, and send you all prepayment details. You will find photos and insider's reviews of all properties listed here at www.ipanema.com/hotel.

About package bookings:

New Year's Eve is the second highest season in Rio. Hotels offer rooms in prepayable packages with a pre-determined number of mandatory nights – usually three or four. Rates are higher than what they charge during the off-season.

Many travelers are staying in Rio for longer periods. Additional nights are quoted lower, and they are payable at the front desk (you don't need to prepay). Once we receive your email confirming the details of your booking, we will quote the rates applicable to the full period of your stay – including the additional nights.

About package rates:

Package rates are set by hotels, not by our travel agency. Some hotels quote their rates in Brazilian reais (R$), and others in US$ (US dollars). We are not at the liberty of converting from one rate to the other, as the exchange rate changes on a daily basis. To give you a rough idea, today one dollar is worth something between 2.2 and 2.5 Brazilian reais depending on whether you are buying or selling.

Package rates are quoted per room per package. This means that if you choose a 5-night package in a room with triple occupancy the rate quoted includes 5 nights, and you may share expenses with your two travel companions. Breakfast is included in most rates, as detailed on the list. Tickets to Carnival events, airport transfers and air tickets are not included.

About prepayments and cancellation policy:

Hotels request full prepayment to confirm package bookings. The prepayment is made directly to the hotel, not to our travel agency. Package bookings are final, and prepayments are non-refundable. If there are any changes in your travel plans you will have to negotiate with the hotel, and most properties do not give refunds or credits for later use. We suggest booking your hotel only once you have already secured your air tickets.

About the list of hotels and flats:

Hotels are listed alphabetically, and you can press CTRL+F to search the list and find a particular property you may be interested in. This list includes standard hotels in all price ranges, and apart-hotels that offer units with living-dining room, bathroom, and one or two bedrooms with daily maid service. They may also offer standard rooms with a bathroom (listed here as "ensuite").

We took great care in the selection of the hotels and flats shown on this list, and we are sure you will find just what you were looking for. We are looking forward to helping you secure the best values in Rio. Count on our expertise – we have been helping travelers from all over the world since 1997. We will also be happy to assist you with other travel needs while in town, including guided city tours, discounted land and air tours to favorite destinations, and a host of travel services. See you in Rio!

Best regards,
Marcos S. Prado

New Years Packages – Reservation FAQ's

1. What are the package dates?

Most hotels offer packages with flexible dates, as long as the night of December 31st is included. If you choose a hotel with fixed dates and they don't match yours, we will suggest the best alternative.

2. I need fewer nights. Can I get a discount?

No. Hotels do not break packages nor give discounts if you need fewer nights.

3. I am staying for a longer period. Do I have to prepay everything?

No. Hotels only request prepayment of the mandatory package nights. Additional nights are priced lower, and you can pay directly at the front desk.

4. Are rates quoted per person or per night?

No. Package rates are quoted per package per room. All mandatory nights are included in the package rate, and you can share expenses with your travel companions.

5. What is the prepayment method?

Hotels take major credit cards for prepayment purposes.

6. How can you guarantee my room will be there when I arrive in Rio?

Your prepayment is made directly to the hotel of your choice. You will receive a receipt of prepayment issued by the hotel together with your final confirmation.

7. When should I book?

Only once your air tickets are confirmed. Package bookings are final, and non-refundable prepayments are made directly to the hotel.

9. Are airport transfers and tickets to parties included in the package?

No. Only the hotel room and in most cases breakfast (as detailed on the list)
